

In the United States Court of Federal Claims

No. 20-1784

(Filed: December 15, 2023)

CHEVRON U.S.A. INC. et al.,

Plaintiffs,

v.

UNITED STATES,

Defendant.

ORDER

Pending before the court is the parties’ joint motion to amend the discovery schedule. ECF No. 52. The parties ask the court to “extend the deadlines in the case schedule by six months.” Id. at 1. The parties “have worked diligently on discovery” but “agree that additional time is needed . . . to ensure . . . adequate opportunity to review their respective document productions and, if necessary, . . . conduct additional discovery.” Id.

For good cause shown, the parties’ joint motion to amend the discovery schedule is GRANTED. The court adopts the parties’ proposed schedule:

Event	Deadline
Close of fact discovery	August 1, 2024
Plaintiffs to designate affirmative expert witnesses and provide reports	February 1, 2025
Defendant to designate expert witnesses and provide reports	April 1, 2025
Plaintiffs to designate rebuttal expert witnesses and provide rebuttal reports	May 15, 2025
Close of expert discovery and completion of expert witness depositions	July 15, 2025

It is so ORDERED.
